May in Brief

The club continued meeting on Zoom, and that is expected to continue for the foreseeable future. We were fortunate to have two fine speakers: on May 5, Dr. Douglas Dinwiddie gave an interesting talk about the history of Fort Bayard. On May 12, we had Leslie Shurts and Michelle Giese tell us about the long-lasting damaging effects of adverse childhood experiences.

We continued work on a proposal for a District Grant to support the food pantries run by The Commons. RJ Jones submitted the preliminary proposal, which was approved. He is now working to compose the full application.

The median on Highway 180 East was spruced up thanks to the hard work of a number of Rotarians: Peter Herzberg, RJ Jones, Max Higgs, Niel McDonald.

Kathy Eaton established a veritable mask factory, turning out over 600 mask, which were handed out at Albertson's, on Bullard Street, and at the Farmer's Market.

We learned that Covid-19 relief project for Guatemala to which we had made a $1,500 contribution won approval in record time.

Alyssa Clear

We received Thank-you letters from the two students who earned the WNMU Rotary scholarships this year: Alyssa Clear, who is an Accounting major with a minor in Entrepreneurship and expects to graduate in spring, 2021, and Elizabeth Sorells, who is a junior with a double major in Mathematics and Forest Wildlife.

Elizabeth Sorells

Birthdays were celebrated by Kate Watson (on the 6th), Nkechi Nwachuku (on the 15th) and Maggie Veeder (on the 22nd). Lucy Falley had her first club anniversary on the 6th and Jim Callender had his 15th on the 17th.

What's Coming Up?

Club meetings and board meetings will have to continue on Zoom until we can safely return to in-person meetings.

Rotary International will hold a Virtual Convention this year. It is scheduled for June 20-26. To learn more about it and to register go to <https://www.riconvention.org/en>.

Special Dates: Mark Richard will have his 32nd club anniversary on June 1. June 4 is the birthday of Tim Garner, Kate Watson's husband, and June 9 is Peter and Tina Herzberg's wedding anniversary and they are both celebrating their birthday on the very next day. Also on June 10, Jim and Joy Tindall will celebrate their wedding anniversary.
